Comments:

Details about the UCI Law grading scale, including changes made for the 2020-21 academic year due to COVID-19, are available at: <http://www.law.uci.edu/academics/registrar/grades.html> All first-year courses have a required median of B+ and the following grade distribution: A (19%-23%), A- (19%-23%), B+ (19%-23%), B (19%-23%), B- or below (14%-18%). Advanced, non-clinical courses with enrollment of 25 or more JD students have a required median of B+ (3.3) and the following grade distribution: A, A- (33%-39%), B+ or B (41%-45%), B- or below (14%-18%). Instructors are encouraged, but not required, to give roughly the same number of, respectively, A, A-, B+, and B grades. In all advanced, non-clinical courses with enrollment of 16 to 24 JD students, no more than 50% of grades shall be in the A-range (i.e., A+, A, or A-), and no more than 50% of grades shall be a B- or below. In all advanced courses with enrollment of 5 to 15 JD students, and for all non-advanced clinical courses, the following restrictions apply: * For courses with an even number of students, no more than 50% of students may receive grades of A+ or A, and no more than 50% of students may receive grades of B- or below. * For courses with an odd number of students, the course median shall be between A- (3.7) and B (3.0). All directed research courses, advanced clinics, and all upper-level courses with enrollments of 4 or fewer students shall be subject to no required median or grade distribution. In all advanced courses, including clinics, and all first-year courses there shall be a required number of A+ grades as specified at the above-noted web page.

Other Interview Programs

Southern California Public Interest Career Day Hosted by UCLA School of Law | expected February 2024 <https://socialpicd.weebly.com/> UCI Law students participate in the formal interview process for summer employment, and "table-talk" with participating employers. Public interest and government employers from throughout the Southern California region attend each year. Patent Law Interview Program Hosted by Loyola University Chicago School of Law | July 2023 The Loyola Patent Law Interview Program is a three-day interview program held in Chicago each summer that brings together patent law employers and law students from across the country to interview for summer associate positions and post-graduate employment.

Diversity Interview Programs

Cook County Bar Association Minority Job Fair Hosted by Cook County Bar Association | July 2023 The objective of the CCBA Minority Job Fair is to recruit the brightest talent amongst minority law students of color and match them with employers (law firms, corporations, government agencies, and public interest agencies) that truly value diversity. Bay Area Diversity Career Fair | July 2023 The Bay Area Diversity Fair attracts hiring representatives from the most prominent law firms, government legal departments, and nonprofit organizations. Only law students who have completed their first year of law school by the time interviews are eligible to participate. Openings are for 2024 2L summer associate positions. National Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Bar Association Lavender Law Conference and Career Fair | July 2023 The National LGBT Bar Association's annual Lavender Law® Career Fair is designed to achieve a sense of community and inclusion for LGBTQ+ candidates within the legal profession's recruiting efforts. By participating in this career fair, candidates will talk directly to LGBTQ+ friendly recruiters from law firms, government agencies, LGBTQ+ rights groups, and corporate legal departments. Western Regional Black Law Student Association Annual Job Fair | July 2023 The Career Development Office also advises students of upcoming minority and diversity job fairs held throughout the country.

For Employers who do not interview students on-campus, will you:

send, upon request, one package containing resumes/transcripts? Yes post a notice directing students to apply directly to employer? Yes

UCI Law encourages employers to submit job opportunities for graduates in our online job database, Legal Employment Opportunities (LEO), hosted by 12Twenty. After a free, one-time registration, employers may post job openings online themselves. To begin, employers should visit <https://law-uci.12twenty.com/hire>. Employer registrations and job postings must be approved by the Career Development Office and may remain open for any duration of the employer's choosing.

Are employers permitted to prescreen? Yes

First Year Students

Prospective employers should not initiate formal one-on-one recruiting contact with first-year students, including applications, interviews, or offers prior to December 1. In limited circumstances government employers requiring an extensive background check may receive and review applications prior to December 1.
